

DRIVE AGAINST MALARIA

TROPICARE DONATES € 20.000

By: Hans de Jong

Dutch “De Telegraaf” was invited by Tropicare in Almere, to witness the handover of a check for € 20.000 to enable Drive Against Malaria (DAM) to supply 4000 nets to Africa’s oldest tribes of the Congo Basin.

F.l.t.r.: CEO Tropicare Arnoud Aalbersberg, David Robertson, Julia Samuël, Ina Eggink (De Telegraaf)

This donation is the final touch and the completion of the 3 year “Net for a Net Campaign” of Tropicare. This campaign started in 2005 in which for every Care Plus Mosquito Net sold to travellers, one mosquito net has been given to children under the age of five and pregnant women during distribution projects in Africa by DAM.

On November 8, the full story will be published in the Netherlands by “De Telegraaf”. ◀
